At times we may wish to take photos or videos of the activity or individuals in it. We adhere to the FA guidelines to ensure that these are safe and respectful and used solely for the purposes for which they are intended. We particularly might use these photos and videos in publications which is promotion and celebration of grassroots football activities. This may involve collection and publication of the photos and footage of you or your child on our websites, social media pages or publications, or this being shared with media organisations to promote and celebrate grassroots football initiatives and disability football.

Please confirm that this is acceptable to you in the box below. If you or your child is under a protection order, please do not confirm in this box.

I agree to photos/videos being taken and shared as specified above (please state yes or no):

If you have any medical conditions or require medication please state it here:
